

ALICE'S ADVENTURES

she would manage it. "They must go by the carrier," she thought; "and how funny it'll seem, sending presents to one's own feet. And how odd the directions will look!

*Alice's Right Foot, Esq.
Hearthrug,
Near the Fender,
(with Alice's love.)*

"Oh dear, what nonsense I'm talking."

Just at this moment her head struck against the roof of the hall; in fact she was now rather more than nine feet high, and she at once took up the little golden key and hurried off to the garden door.

Poor Alice! It was as much as she could do, lying down on one side, to look through into the garden with one eye: but to get through was more hopeless than ever: she sat down and began to cry again.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself," said Alice, "a great girl like you" (she might well
